

Cover of Denise Chávez's Face of an Angel, winner of the 1994 Premio Aztlán award. Reprinted with permission of the author.

Courtesy of Daniel Zolinsky

Front and back of program for the third annual Crítica Nueva lecture. Rudolfo A. Anaya Papers, MSS 321, box 23, folder 30.

Permission to publish granted by the Center for Southwest Research and Special Collections.

Maria Herrera-Sobek currently resides in Goleta, California, with her family. Her latest publication is Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage, Volume IV.

Thursday, October 28, 1999
10 a.m.
Willard Reading Room
Zimmerman Library

Welcome: Rudolfo Anaya

Introduction of Recipient:
Jose Almán, Professor,
Department of English

Honoree: Maria Herrera-Sobek
Luis Leal Endowed Chair
Director of Chicano Studies
University of California, Santa Barbara
"Environment Matters: Ecological Critical Theory and Chicana Literary and Artistic Expressions"

Closing Remarks:
Rudolfo Anaya

Reception Follows

Program for the third annual Crítica Nueva lecture. Rudolfo A. Anaya Papers, MSS 321, box 23, folder 30.

Permission to publish granted by the Center for Southwest Research and Special Collections

Poster for the second annual Rudolfo and Patricia Anaya Lecture on the Literature of the Southwest featuring a photograph of Denise Chávez's mother, Delfina Rede Faver Chávez, also on the cover of A Taco Testimony. Reprinted with permission of the author.